2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Welcome to the 2010 application process for the Governor's Foreign Language Academies and Virginia STARTALK Arabic and Chinese Academies. Together, the Governor's Foreign Language Academies (GFLA) for French, German, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish; and the Virginia STARTALK Academies (VSA) for Arabic and Chinese form the Virginia Foreign Language Academies: A Global Village.

The Governor's Foreign Language Academies are sponsored by the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) and hosted by Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU). The STARTALK Arabic and Chinese Academies are sponsored by VCU in collaboration with the VDOE. Although the STARTALK program is funded separately from the Virginia Governor's Foreign Language Academies, both programs operate concurrently and share similar designs. Therefore, the application submission and review processes have been combined.

The availability of any or all the Governor's and/or STARTALK Foreign Language Academies is dependent upon local, state, and/or federal funding. Student nominees will be notified immediately if a program becomes unavailable and will be offered another program option, if possible.

Please be aware that students must be nominated by their schools, and that schools are limited in the number of students they may nominate. Review the information carefully and speak with your foreign language teacher or school counselor to ensure that you meet all school and state deadlines.

The application process is a joint effort involving the student, the local public or private school, the public school division, and the VDOE. This document contains general program information about the Virginia Foreign Language Academies. The application contains portions that you and your parents/guardians must complete, and portions to be completed by two teachers and your principal or headmaster. All parts of the application are available in Word and .pdf formats at the following Web site: <http://www.doe.virginia.gov/VDOE/Instruction/Language/GAindex.html>.

All applications must be printed and signed by the student and parent/guardian in order to be considered. It is important to note that incomplete applications will not be considered. Please review the information in this guide carefully and consult your school counselor or foreign language teacher for additional deadlines.

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

INTRODUCTION

Since 1987, the Virginia Department of Education has sponsored Governor's Foreign Language Academies, summer residential programs for Virginia's most motivated foreign language students. As of August 2009, over 6,800 students have completed one of the six programs. Bringing the six separate Academies together as a Global Village in 2004 allowed each of the Academies to maintain its individuality as well as to offer activities to expand global awareness, multicultural understanding, and international education. In 2007-2008, the Department of Education applied for and received a STARTALK grant to add a Chinese Academy to the Global Village. Based on the success of the pilot Chinese Academy, Virginia Commonwealth University applied for and received STARTALK grants for Arabic and Chinese Academies for summer 2009, and plans to reapply for grants for 2010 and each year for the foreseeable future. The Virginia STARTALK Academies for Arabic and Chinese are modeled after the Governor's Japanese and Russian Academies and run concurrently with the Governor's Foreign Language Academies, sharing campus facilities and participating in several Global Village activities.

The Academies are some of the most notable developments in foreign language study to have occurred in the Commonwealth of Virginia. They have come to signify what language instruction is all about – communication. The focus of the Academies is on using the foreign language in a functional and meaningful way. A distinguishing feature of the Academies is that everyone wants to be there and wants to learn. Excellent students and excellent faculty create a highly stimulating environment. Students and faculty work closely together, and the closing ceremony is always a bittersweet occasion. Most describe the language Academies as a mind broadening experience, and the participants leave as changed young people.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

The Virginia Foreign Language Academies: A Global Village is a three-week summer residential program for tenth- and eleventh-grade foreign language students in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The program is housed on the campus of Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond. The Governor's Academies (French, German, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish) are funded by the Commonwealth of Virginia and local school divisions or private schools, pending available state funding. The Virginia STARTALK Arabic and Chinese Academies are funded by the STARTALK grant program administered by the National Foreign Language Center at the University of Maryland. Funding for STARTALK comes from the Office of the Director of National Intelligence, and STARTALK is one of several language programs under the umbrella of the National Security Language Initiative (January 5, 2006). Notification of grant approval takes place in February. In the event that VCU is not awarded a grant, students will be notified and will have the opportunity to be considered for another partial-immersion Academy (Japanese or Russian). Information about the national STARTALK program is available at http://www.nflc.org/projects/current_projects/startalk/.

The Global Village program is designed to provide a unique and exciting opportunity for outstanding students who are interested in pursuing language studies in an intensive environment. Each language Academy provides a curriculum that integrates classroom instruction with a wealth of extra- and co-curricular activities. A typical student schedule involves classes during the morning that are not typical of foreign language classes offered in schools, such as history, literary topics, art history, and current civilization as well as language courses such as grammar or phonetics. Immersion students are generally introduced to a third, less-commonly taught language as one of their classes, and Latin students are introduced to ancient Greek. Additional activities may include seminars, intra- and inter-Academy competitions, cultural simulations, field trips, sports, and social activities. Evening and weekend activities that are integral to the goals of the program include recreation, special events such as concerts or plays, lectures by visiting scholars, movies, and student performances.

French, German, and Spanish Academies (Full-Immersion)

The three full-immersion programs provide an intensive experience and unique challenge for students who have excelled in language study to continue learning that language in a total immersion environment. Formal classes generally take place during the mornings. In these classes, the target language is used to present various topics. The topics vary depending on the faculty, but a sample from previous Academies includes History of France, The Media in Germany, Excerpts from Literature, Latin American Music, Life in France Today, etc. Native speakers are often a part of the faculty. If possible, students are introduced to an additional language not commonly taught in the schools. That language is chosen according to availability of instructors who must be able to speak the language of the Academy and use it to teach a third language. In the past we have offered Korean, Russian, or Arabic in French; Russian or Turkish in German; and Greek, Italian, Russian, or Japanese in Spanish. This is often cited as one of the most enlightening, valuable, and enjoyable features of the Academy. Sports, music, dance, theater, creative projects, cooking, field trips, production of a memory DVD, and other activities complement the instructional program.

Students in these full-immersion programs will be expected to conduct all communications in the language(s) of their Academy and may be dismissed for intentionally or repeatedly speaking English. Students of the immersion programs should also make every effort to AVOID hearing and reading English (or any language not of their Academy), except in the situations mentioned below. Therefore, you may not bring English-language music or nonreligious printed material with you.

Of course, students may use English in a few situations: when interacting with law enforcement or emergency personnel, when seeking health care, or during religious services. A student may bring personal religious material printed in English. Students may also write and receive letters from home in English. For other circumstances, immersion students will be provided with a “passport” that they may show to others, indicating that they do understand English but are not allowed to speak it.

At approximately 16 hours per day for 21 days, students speak, listen, read, write, and think in the target language at least 336 hours—more than double the amount possible during a typical high school course. You may think that speaking French, German, or Spanish for three weeks is formidable; however, about 4,000 students have successfully completed the immersion programs since the pilot French Academy in 1986.

The full-immersion Academies were designed to provide an immersion setting for students who have learned the Academy language in a traditional school setting. The focus is on the development of oral fluency and ease of expression. Students who have already experienced equivalent immersion opportunities or who are already proficient speakers of the Academy language should not apply.

A statewide selection committee will make the final determination as to the appropriateness of an applicant's participation in this regard. Nominees will be rated on a point system that takes into account a range of factors, including time spent abroad or in an immersion language camp, frequency of language use, and whether the student is a heritage speaker of the Academy language. The following could cause an applicant to be eliminated in the selection process:

- Prior residence in a country where the language of the Academy is spoken, especially since the age of 12;
- Extensive travel experiences in a country where the language of the Academy is spoken, especially with regard to frequent opportunities for using the language;
- Extensive full-immersion experiences (24 hrs/day) with the language of the Academy, such as home-stay or travel/study programs in a country where the Academy language is spoken, or participation in an immersion language program such as Concordia Language Villages; or
- Residence in a family where the language of the Academy is spoken in the home, or regular contact with members of the extended family where the Academy language is used for communication.

“Extensive” is defined as equivalent to an Academy in length and intensity; i.e., three or more weeks in an immersion setting. Students with highly developed oral language skills do not find the rigors of the Academy as challenging or rewarding as students of lesser proficiency who, for the most part, have learned the language entirely in a classroom setting. Furthermore, it is difficult for staff to accommodate students whose language skills are already sufficiently developed. It is suggested that such students consider application to one of the partial-immersion Academies, i.e., Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, or Russian.

Note: Participation in elementary, middle, and/or high school immersion programs within a U.S. school setting does not disqualify students from consideration. These are not considered to be 24-hour per day full-immersion settings.

Latin Academy

The Latin Academy provides an intensive experience for students who have excelled in the study of Latin to continue learning in a setting unavailable in the regular school environment. The Latin Academy is designed to provide a greater knowledge of the language and related cultural topics than are typically offered in the regular school curriculum. In the past, such topics as nonliterary Latin, philosophy, composition, sight reading, comedy, grammar, drama, ancient art, and numismatics have made up the program. Students will also be introduced to Classical Greek and have an opportunity to study and discuss some of the great literature and philosophy of the western world. Any, all, or additional topics as they relate to the ancient world may constitute the program this summer. Olympic games, sports, films, music, Greek dancing, guest speakers, cultural activities, field trips, and other topics may be featured during the Academy. A thematic approach will be used to unite all facets of the program.

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Russian Academies (Partial-Immersion)

The partial-immersion programs in Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Russian provide a unique and exciting opportunity for interested students to be introduced to these cultures and languages, which are not widely taught across the Commonwealth. The students will be introduced to the history, literature, and culture of the countries where the language is spoken as well as receiving instruction in the language. Activities complementing the instructional program will include art, dance, music, crafts, sports, creative projects, food preparation, and field trips. Intermediate classes may also be available to students who have studied Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, or Russian, depending on the demand. The staff will differentiate instruction to accommodate both those who have had some previous study in the target language and those who have not. These Academies are not appropriate for fluent or proficient speakers of the Academy language.

NOMINATION CRITERIA FOR APPLICANTS

Students must be nominated by their schools and all applicants must be residents* of Virginia. Schools are strongly encouraged to review the selection criteria with students and to assist them in recognizing the competition they face at the state level. The school must order testing material and provide appropriate, proctored testing locations for students applying to the French, German, Latin, and Spanish Academies.

High schools submitting nominations may not discriminate on the basis of religious conviction, race, color, gender, age, disability, or national origin. Schools eligible to nominate students to the Academies include public high schools from a Virginia public school division and private schools that are accredited by the Virginia Council for Private Education or other accrediting agency. Home-school students may apply through the public school they are eligible to attend tuition free. A state selection process will determine who is accepted to participate.

The number of applicants per Academy allowed per school is based on the Average Daily Membership (ADM) in grades 10, 11, and 12 of that school, as of September 30, 2009.

Enrollment in grades 10-12 as of September 30, 2009	Number of nominees to French, German, Latin, or Spanish	Number of nominees to Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, or Russian
1-750	1 per Academy	1 per Academy
More than 750	2 per Academy

For information regarding residency, please refer to Superintendent's Informational Memorandum Number 140, issued by the Virginia Department of Education on July 27, 2007, available at <http://www.doe.virginia.gov/VDOE/suptsmemos/2007/inf140.html>.*

Students currently studying the language of the Academy are also encouraged to apply.

Students applying to the Latin Academy must have completed at least level two of the language prior to the beginning of the Academy.

Students of the French, German, and Spanish Academies must meet the additional criteria below.

Eligible students:

- must have completed at least level three of the language prior to the beginning of the Academy;
- must have developed good proficiency in using this language; and
- must be willing to use the target language for all social and academic interactions.

Please note: The immersion Academies are not designed for students with native or near-native fluency in the target language. Please see page five of this guide for a full explanation of past language experiences that could cause an applicant to be eliminated in the selection process.

STUDENT SELECTION PROCESS

Students undergo a rigorous selection process that begins with nomination by their schools. Although open to all tenth- and eleventh-grade students in the Commonwealth (including home-school as well as out-of-state private school students whose parents/guardians reside in Virginia), each school division or private school is limited to a specific number of nominees it may send forward per language. Following the VDOE's announcement in October of the availability of the respective programs for the summer, schools must choose which students they will officially nominate. (Please refer to the timeline on page two for specific deadlines.)

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Only a foreign language department chairperson or designee may request testing materials and submit nominations. Students and parents/guardians may not make nominations. All nominations must be submitted by the school according to the instructions in the Guide for School Personnel, available online at <http://www.doe.virginia.gov/VDOE/Instruction/Language/GAindex.html>. The person responsible for processing applications at the school level must see that all aspects of the application are properly completed, assembled, and submitted as an integrated packet. All nominations must be made on the forms provided by the Department of Education, available from the above Web site.

Following the release of information about the availability of the summer programs, students must complete the application, which requires two teacher recommendations including rating scales and written narratives; the principal's or headmaster's recommendation; a student transcript; and an essay or testing in the language, depending on the Academy.

The nominating school must submit a complete application packet for each nominee. Student application packets, which must include the sealed envelopes with their completed testing materials, if applicable, must be postmarked or hand-delivered to the VDOE by the deadline indicated on page two. The process for assembling and mailing applications is described on the application, in a separate section of this guide, and in the Guide for School Personnel available from the Web site.

IMPORTANT: Students (and their parents/guardians) whose applications are not sent forward for state-level consideration must be notified in writing by the school indicating that the student was not selected by the division as a nominee. Divisions may be asked to provide this list to the VDOE.

Following submission of the applications, the VDOE will process and verify completeness of applications and prepare the materials for review by a statewide selection committee. The selection committee, made up of teachers, supervisors, and other language experts, will meet to carefully examine all application materials and evaluate student writing and speaking samples and/or grammar tests. Selection is competitive and based solely on committee review and evaluation of the applicant's qualifications. The selection committee will recommend participants and alternates, based on the strength of the student's application and language abilities (where applicable). No individual nominee is guaranteed acceptance. See Appendix A for the selection committee's criteria.

In mid-April, the VDOE will mail letters to all nominees informing them of their status. Each Academy is limited in the number of participants and alternates it can choose. Students invited as participants or alternates must indicate by early May whether they intend to accept the invitation. Qualified alternates will be chosen to replace any students that have declined the invitation.

By May 31, students will receive a packet from the VDOE containing additional information relating to their Academy. This packet will contain detailed information about what to bring and what to expect as well as a variety of forms that must be returned to the Academy director.

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Testing for French, German, Latin, and Spanish Academies Nominees

The testing materials must be requested separately by the foreign language department chairperson or designee at each school. The topics may not be requested by students or parents/guardians. The order form is available on the Internet at <http://www.doe.virginia.gov/VDOE/Instruction/Language/order.doc>. These testing materials must be requested by December 15, 2009.

Students with Individualized Education Programs (IEP) will be provided with testing accommodations as outlined in the IEP. A copy of the relevant page(s) of the IEP should be included with the student's application. This information will be kept confidential.

All full-immersion students use the same speaking and writing prompts but must respond in their respective languages; therefore, all immersion nominees from a particular school must be tested during the same block of time. Likewise, all nominees to the Latin Academy from a particular school must be tested during the same block of time. Both parts of the test (speaking sample and composition OR Latin grammar test and essay) must be completed in a supervised testing environment proctored by a school staff member who is not a speaker or scholar of the language being tested. Ideally, both parts of the test should be completed within the same block of time, not to exceed two hours. At the time of testing, the proctor will open sealed instructions containing topics and other information and give these to the student(s). Every effort should be made to deliver an audible and/or legible product of good content, organization, and structure. No one may provide assistance to the student in any way with either of these application components. If it is ascertained that this has happened, the applicant will be automatically disqualified.

Nominees to the Latin Academy must take a Latin grammar test and write an essay in English on a topic related to Roman history or mythology. Students should come prepared with paper and pencils.

Nominees to the French, German, and Spanish Academies must provide a speaking sample and write a composition in the target language. The speaking sample may be recorded on a CD in .mp3 format or on a cassette tape. The student must provide his or her own writable CD or cassette tape and writing materials. If a cassette tape is used, we suggest a recognized brand; inexpensive tapes frequently malfunction. The proctor should ensure that the tape recorder is set to the correct speed and that the equipment works properly prior to beginning. We suggest verifying audibility and speed setting of a tape on a different tape recorder prior to beginning testing. If an inaudible or otherwise unintelligible speaking sample is submitted, the selection committee has no alternative but to award the student a score of zero. Immersion students should be advised that their speaking and writing samples carry the most weight in the selection process.

Nominees to the Arabic, Chinese, Japanese, and Russian Academies must write two essays in English; the topic choices are included on the student application and the essays do not need to be proctored. Nominees to these Academies may be beginners and will not be tested in the language of the Academy.

Acceptance and attendance at the Foreign Language Academies is a three-week commitment. Careful consideration needs to be taken of family needs and personal commitments prior to the submission of an application. Since spaces are highly competitive, students who can make a full commitment to the program are given highest priority. A leave of absence may be granted ONLY for family and/or medical emergencies.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Academy participants represent their school and school division or region. Each student acts as an ambassador of his/her area. Attendance at a Foreign Language Academy is a privilege that can be revoked. Academy students are expected to display common courtesy and respect for fellow students at all times.

Failure to comply with any of the following standards will result in immediate dismissal from the program.

- Students shall not possess or use alcohol or illegal drugs. (§ 4.1-305, 18.2-248, and 18.2-371.2 Code of Virginia)
- Students shall not smoke, use or possess any tobacco product.
- Students shall not possess or use any kind of weapon.
- Students shall not leave campus or designated areas at any time without permission.
- Students shall not visit the residential areas of the opposite sex at any time, nor enter residence halls occupied by other groups on campus.
- Students shall not steal/borrow without the owner's permission.
- Students shall not treat faculty, staff, presenters, students, or others on campus in a disrespectful manner.
- Students shall not intentionally damage the property of others.
- Students shall not commit any act of violence.
- Students shall not bring a vehicle or ride in one unaccompanied by a staff member.

Participants are also subject to any law enforcement and/or disciplinary action that the sponsoring school division or private school chooses to invoke. Certain infractions may result in legal consequences as outlined in the Code of Virginia.

We are fortunate to serve some of the brightest and most motivated language students in Virginia. Therefore, disciplinary infractions are rare, and 98-99 percent of the students will finish the program with no problems. However, each summer we typically dismiss 3-5 students, most frequently for English spoken deliberately or repeatedly at a full-immersion Academy, or for cell phone use or possession. In all cases of disciplinary issues or concerns, parents/guardians will be informed as soon as possible.

Due to the highly structured nature of the program, we would like you to be aware of the following rules in advance:

You are expected to:

- be on time;
- be prepared with needed materials;
- show respect and consideration to others;
- contribute positively to the community spirit of the Academy;
- be responsible for your belongings;
- wear your color-coded lanyard with ID card at all times;
- not go anywhere outside of the residence hall complex without a staff member;
- not use telephones and e-mail; and
- NEVER be in dorm rooms or halls of the opposite sex.

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

If you are dismissed from an Academy prior to the closing, we will notify your school division superintendent or private school headmaster and will send copies of the letter to your public school principal, your nominating teacher, and your parents/guardians. Your local school may take additional disciplinary actions, at its discretion. Students that have been dismissed will not receive an Academy certificate and may not indicate their attendance on college applications. If a student is dismissed from the Academy, it shall be the responsibility of the parent or guardian to arrange for student transportation home or to assume the costs for transportation arranged by the Academy director.

Dress Guidelines

To help ensure a respectful community of learners and an environment conducive to learning, the Global Village establishes these guidelines for student dress:

- Clothing should be neat, modest, comfortable and appropriate.
- Shoes and shirts must be worn at all times.
- Shorts/skirts/dresses must be at least fingertip length.
- Clothing should avoid spaghetti straps, bare midriffs, cleavage, exposed undergarments, and offensive messages.
- Outdoor temperatures are usually warm so bring light, mostly casual clothing; however, the director will provide students with information about more formal activities.
- Air conditioning keeps academic spaces chilly, so warmer attire is recommended indoors.

Residence Halls

Roommate assignments are made very carefully to ensure that you meet as many fellow students as possible. Male and female students will live in separate wings or floors of the residence hall and will be able to meet only in common meeting areas. Teachers and Resident Advisors (RAs) will live in the dorm with you and will be available at all times.

What to Bring

Detailed information will be provided in the student packet that you will receive from the Academy director by the end of May.

What NOT to Bring

Students shall not bring the following items:

Alcoholic beverages	Computers or electronic games	Televisions, VCR's, or DVD players
Bicycles, roller blades, or skateboards	Drugs – other than medication listed on the medical forms	Tobacco products
Candles or incense	Expensive jewelry or other items	Telephones (including cellular phones) or pagers
Cars or other vehicles	Pets	Weapons, "look alikes" for theatre, or laser pointers
Full-immersion students shall not bring radios, iPods, or other similar devices.

Correspondence/Communication with Home

You will not have access to e-mail or telephones during the Academies, so we encourage parents/guardians and friends to send frequent letters and packages via postal mail. Students will be given time daily for correspondence.

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

Full-immersion students MAY write letters in English during time set aside daily for correspondence, as an exception to the usual rule. However, friends and parents/guardians of immersion students must not send magazines or other items in English, other than personal religious materials and the actual correspondence.

Visitation

With the understanding that one of the purposes of the Academy is to achieve a cohesive, self-contained environment in which students can learn and come to know one another with a minimum of external distractions, participants are allowed neither to receive nor make visits during the three-week session. Please understand that these guidelines are established to ensure that all participants derive maximum benefit from the program.

Cellular Phone Policy

Unauthorized use or possession of telephones, including cell phones, is not allowed. Each Academy seeks to promote community among its members and recreate the culture(s) of the target language. This means fostering an environment with limited distractions. Over the past 20 years, we have found that students appreciate the ability to concentrate on new relationships within the community and leave behind, if only for a brief time, the demands and interruptions that everyday life imposes. The relationships that students build at the Academies often last into adulthood, and many participants keep in touch and participate in informal reunions for many years.

We believe that cellular phones impede the fundamental goals of the Academy experience. To that end, we expect that students and parents/guardians will respect our community formation process by leaving cellular phones at home. This policy is often more difficult for parents/guardians to accept than for students, because they have become accustomed in recent years to being in constant contact with their children. For information regarding security measures in place to protect the safety of students, please see page 15 of this guide under the question “What other services will be provided for participants?”

If a parent has questions regarding the cell phone policy, please contact Helen Small at 804-225-3666 or Helen.Small@doe.virginia.gov no later than June 10.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the academic and social expectations for students?

Participants need to understand before they arrive that the primary purpose of the Global Village is to offer them a challenging and enriching academic and social program. Each program will include clear expectations for students' class assignments, projects, and other activities. The majority of the student's day is structured with morning classes, afternoon activities, field trips, and evening events. Students will be interacting continually with staff members and other students, and must be able to adapt to an intensive environment. They may be shy or introverted, but they must not insulate themselves from others all of the time. Academy students must be adaptable “team players” and are expected to contribute positively to the Academy community through their attitudes and choices.

Students are expected to take responsibility for their own learning by attending classes, completing assignments, participating in group study and practice, and being well prepared to learn each day. This program expects students to be physically as well as mentally motivated to participate fully in both academic and social activities. It is imperative that students assess their own mental and physical health, as well as their motives for attending the Foreign Language Academies, before applying for this program. Students must have the necessary stamina for life on a college campus, which includes extensive movement outdoors among the residence hall, classrooms, dining hall, recreation fields, and other locations throughout the day.

Faculty and staff are employed as mentors, teachers, and student/resident advisors. The school maintains a very low student-to-teacher ratio; however, the program is not able to make a one-to-one assignment of student to staff member. For that reason, students should be in good or excellent health, be able to demonstrate necessary self-discipline, and, if necessary, to self-medicate.

How is the program administered?

The overall responsibility for administering the Governor's Foreign Language Academies for French, German, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish rests with the Virginia Department of Education. VCU administers the STARTALK Academies for Arabic and Chinese. While the Academies are in session, the Global Village program coordinator and/or Academy director has the responsibility for operating the specific program. The director's responsibility is to provide a challenging, academic program and to maintain an atmosphere conducive for participants to meet those challenges. All directors and staffs are dedicated to providing an educational opportunity for motivated students that is commensurate with the abilities and interests of those students. Some of the faculty and staff are themselves former foreign language academy participants.

What is the "typical" daily schedule?

In order to allow students to make the most of the experience, every day Monday through Saturday includes classes until at least lunch; lectures, field trips, projects, and recreation time in the afternoon; and evening activities that do not end until shortly before lights out. Sunday mornings are free, but the afternoons and evenings will be packed with activities.

Individual Academy schedules and course descriptions will be provided in a mailing in late May. Prospective applicants should take note of the highly-structured nature of a typical day at the Academies. There is very little free time and you are expected to participate in all classes and activities.

In addition to classes, students will learn traditional crafts and/or dances, attend guest lectures, watch films in the language or relating to the culture, and may go on several field trips to learn more about the target culture(s) and history. Afternoon activities will include a variety of group projects that students will work on consistently over the three-week period. These vary by Academy, but often include video production, newspaper, theater, chorus/music, and the production of a memory DVD that will be distributed to students at the end of the experience. Many of these activities will be highlighted during the closing ceremonies.

Students will eat most meals on campus at the host site dining facility. The dining schedule is staggered to allow each Academy to eat together as an individual group. The dining hall offers a variety of food choices daily. Occasionally students may visit a local restaurant or participate in a specially prepared banquet reflecting the cuisine of the target culture.

Is there free time?

A small portion of the daily schedule provides for free time. Students may prepare work, read, write letters, do laundry, etc. However, this time is very limited. Students should not expect to complete summer assignments (AP reading, etc.) during the program.

What kinds of recreational and social events are planned?

Many different recreational activities are provided, including such activities as soccer, Frisbee, dance, and volleyball. Students will often have an opportunity to learn an activity that is new to them. Some events are planned for the enjoyment of the students and to assure a balance of activities. Dances, athletic events, variety shows, banquets, etc., are examples of the social events.

Supervised recreational activities will be available, and all students will be expected to participate. While there is some time for organized recreation almost every day, please realize that athletes will have to make adjustments to their usual training. Any Academy student may sign up for supervised jogging on Monday through Saturday mornings before breakfast; however, you will not have access to sports facilities during free time.

Are there field trips?

Various field trips may be planned to augment the academic and cultural program. Destinations may include art museums, parks, and other cultural sites.

Are grades and credit granted?

Students receive Certificates of Commendation at the close of each program. Although grades and credit are not given during the Academies, you will receive feedback on your work and should be prepared for some homework.

Are these programs open to home-school students?

The chief administrative officer of the school division in which home-school students reside must nominate them. Home-school students must submit a completed application to the principal of the appropriate high school in their division of residence. These applications then become part of the school's application and nomination process.

Are these programs open to Virginia students who attend schools in other states?

Students who attend private schools outside Virginia but whose parent(s)/guardian(s) reside in Virginia may be nominated by their schools following the same procedure as for public and private schools in Virginia.

What is the cost to participants?

The only program costs to GFLA participants are a $30 materials fee for take-home items produced by and for the students during the Academies, and an optional $20 t-shirt fee. These items become valued keepsakes for Academy participants. Each student must also provide his/her own spending money and transportation to and from the program. In the event a student cannot afford these expenses, the school division or private school is encouraged to assist the student with these expenses.

For the GFLA programs (French, German, Japanese, Latin, Russian, and Spanish), the cost of tuition, room and board, instructional materials, academic field trips, and other activities planned for the program will be paid from state and local funds, pending available funding. The 2010 per-student cost is expected to be no more than $2,135. The school division that nominates a student stipulates that it will pay its share of the per-student cost, as determined by the school division's current (2008-2010) composite index of local ability-to-pay. The local share for private schools is 50 percent of the tuition per student. The state pays the remaining share. Information about the current (2008-2010) composite index of local ability-to-pay for each public school division is available online at <http://www.doe.virginia.gov/VDOE/Finance/Budget/composite.html>.

2010 VIRGINIA FOREIGN LANGUAGE ACADEMIES GENERAL INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS/GUARDIANS

For the VSA programs (Arabic and Chinese), the cost of tuition, room and board, instructional materials, academic field trips, and other activities planned for the program will be paid primarily from grant funds. Like the GFLA students, VSA participants are expected to pay a $30 materials fee for take-home items produced by and for the students during the Academies, and an optional $20 t-shirt fee. This program is run by VCU and is not supported by state or local funds, and there may be additional student fees. This will be determined by mid-January; please check the Web site after January 15.

Will students be able to attend religious services during the Academies?

Interested students may attend religious services within close walking distance of the residence hall. Please understand that selections are limited, although we will make our best effort to accommodate your needs. A teacher or RA also attending services will accompany the students. Students wishing to attend services must return a signed form giving parental permission to attend services off-campus. This form will be provided in the student packet mailed to invited students in May.

What other services will be provided for participants?

The students' health and security are of utmost concern to all staff members. Any illness or injury, whether slight or severe, must be reported immediately to a member of the staff. The director will notify the parents/guardians and keep them apprised of the situation. Injured or ill students will be accompanied to Patient First or to the MCV Medical Center. It is the responsibility of parents/guardians to ensure that the Academy director has all necessary medical information, including insurance and inoculation information. Parents/guardians are responsible for the payment of all medical and emergency services rendered, including transportation to medical facilities. Any and all medications (including over-the-counter drugs) must be in original containers and must not exceed the amount needed for the duration of the Academy, and students must be able to self-medicate.

Students are accompanied by staff members at all times when moving about the campus. Staff members do have cell phones and are able to contact one another or emergency services in the event of a problem. Staff members will subscribe to the emergency alert text message system of the host institution. The front desk of the dormitory is manned 24 hours a day and all persons entering must show identification or buzz in using their identification cards. There is only one accessible entrance into the residence hall complex. Parents/guardians will receive the telephone number for the front desk, along with other contact information, at check-in.

Accommodations are made for individuals with disabilities; please contact Helen Small, specialist for foreign languages, at Helen.Small@doe.virginia.gov for more information concerning those arrangements.

Will participants be granted a leave of absence from the program?

No. A basic principle of the Academy atmosphere is the intensity and uninterrupted nature of the experience. Students and parents/guardians must understand before applying that the students are making a commitment to remain in the Academy for the entire length of the program and are expected to be present from the opening ceremony until the end of the closing ceremonies on the last day. If parents/guardians or students anticipate conflicts of any kind, the students should not apply. They may not compromise the experience except in the case of a medical or family emergency. Medical and family emergencies include major illness, hospitalization, or death of an immediate family member or guardian.
