Background Information: § 2.2-3708.E of the Code of Virginia requires that public bodies holding electronic meetings submit an annual report detailing their experience with any electronic meetings to the Freedom of Information Advisory Council and the Joint Commission on Technology and Science. The report is due by December 15 of each year.

The Code of Virginia specifies the information that is to be included in the annual report, as follows:

§ 2.2-3708. Electronic communication meetings.

E. Any public body that meets by electronic communication means shall make a written report of the following to the Virginia Freedom of Information Advisory Council and the Joint Commission on Technology and Science by December 15 of each year:

1. The total number of electronic communication meetings held during the preceding year;
2. The dates and purposes of the meetings;
3. The number of sites for each meeting;
4. The types of electronic communication means by which the meetings were held;
5. The number of participants, including members of the public, at each meeting location;
6. The identity of the members of the public body recorded as absent, and those recorded as present at each meeting location;
7. A summary of any public comment received about the electronic communication meetings;
and
8. A written summary of the public body's experience using electronic communication meetings, including its logistical and technical experience.

Summary of Major Elements: During the 2006 calendar year, the Board of Education did not conduct any business meetings or committee meetings using electronic communications.

Superintendent's Recommendation: The Superintendent of Public Instruction recommends that the Board of Education waive first review and adopt the 2006 Annual Report on Electronic Meetings.

Impact on Resources: N/A

Timetable for Further Review/Action: Following its adoption, the final report will be submitted to the Freedom of Information Advisory Council and the Joint Commission on Technology and Science, as required by the Code.
