

4-SAFE-VA School Safety Program

Bomb Threat Planning and Response for Educational Facilities

Sponsored by the Virginia State Police

Training Topics

This training focuses on up-to-date strategies for preparing and responding to school-related bomb threats. The training is intended for school superintendents, principals, assistant principals, school resource officers, persons who may be used in building searches, and those who answer phones at the division and school levels. This half-day session will highlight topics including:

- ◇ Proper planning for bomb threats
- ◇ Effective evacuation procedures
- ◇ Evacuation decision making
- ◇ Explosive device recognition
- ◇ Building search techniques
- ◇ Handling the phone call

Training Dates and Locations

November 17, 2000 – Martinsville – Patrick Henry Community College

December 18, 2000 – Weyers Cave – Blue Ridge Community College

(Additional Classes will be offered in early 2001)

Cost and Registration

This training is offered free of cost. Meals are not provided, and all travel expenses are the responsibility of the participant. Class size is limited and registration for this training is on a first come-first serve basis. Agenda and directions will be faxed to you with confirmation of registration.

Please fax the attached registration information sheet to 4-SAFE-VA at (804) 674-2640 or send it to the 4-SAFE-VA Program:

Virginia State Police Academy
4-SAFE-VA
P. O. Box 27472
Richmond, Virginia 23261-7472

If you have any questions, please call Lars Hermann at (804) 674-2575

