

2002-2003
Advanced Placement Fee Payment Program Survey

1. School Division: _____
2. Number of students who are enrolled in an Advanced Placement course for school year 2002-2003: _____
3. Number of students who plan to take an Advanced Placement test in 2002-2003: _____
4. Number of low-income students who plan to take an Advanced Placement test during the 2002-2003 school year: _____

A student may be classified as low-income if any of the following three criteria apply:

- a. The student is eligible for free or reduced-priced lunches.
- b. The student's family receives assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program.
- c. The student is eligible to receive medical assistance under the Medicaid program.

5. ASSURANCES

The Local Education Agency assures that:

- The survey information is correct to the best of its knowledge.
- Any funds received under the Advanced Placement Fee program will only be used to pay Advanced Placement fees for "low-income" individuals.
- Funds provided under this program will be used to supplement, and not supplant, other federal, state, and local or private funds available to assist low-income individuals in paying for Advanced Placement testing.
