

ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY
GRANT APPLICATION

Eligibility to Apply: School divisions that completed the statewide assistive technology needs assessment conducted by the Longwood University Institute for Teaching Through Technology and Innovative Practices (ITTIP).

Return by July 7, 2003 to: Kim Shackelford
Office of Special Education
FAX (804) 371-8796

SCHOOL DIVISION: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CONTACT PERSON: _____ POSITION: _____

TELEPHONE: _____ FAX: _____ E-MAIL: _____

PROPOSED TRAINING (Please describe) If course work is proposed, please list specific courses and University provider.

No. of Staff Participating: _____

Proposed Dates: _____ Estimated Cost: _____

PROPOSED EQUIPMENT/SOFTWARE

COMPANY NAME	ITEM	QUANTITY	UNIT COST
TOTAL COST

OFFICE USE ONLY
DATE RECEIVED:	DATE APPROVAL LETTER:
REIMBURSEMENT REQUEST RECEIVED:	REIMBURSEMENT FORWARDED:

ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY EXAMPLES EQUIPMENT/SOFTWARE

Low-Tech Assistive Technology Aids

Augmentative or Alternative Communication Devices

Alternative Keyboards

Bathroom Aids

Braille Products (i.e. Braille and Speak)

Low Vision Aids

Magnification software

Voice Recognition Software

Aides to daily living (formally environmental control units ECU's)

Switches

Touch Window

Amplified items (i.e. FM systems)

Equipment for closed captioning

Products for sign language

TDD telephone equipment

Alternative Input Devices (i.e. Headmasters, Trackers)

Portable word processors

Adapted toys

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

PROVIDER	TYPE OF TRAINING	CONTACT PERSON
TTAC - JMU	Workshop	Richard Boon (540) 568-7924
TTAC - ODU	Workshop	Mary Wilds (757) 683-5067
TTAC - VCU	Workshops	Fran Smith (804) 827-1406
TTAC - VPI	Workshops, Conference	Glenna Gustafson (540) 231-5162
Longwood College	Workshops	Carol Inge (804) 517-0717
VCU	Courses	Jayne Shepherd (804) 828-2219
TTAC-GMU	Conferences, Courses	Michael Behrman (800) 333-7958