2012-2013 National Title I Distinguished Schools Recognition Program
Instructions for Developing the Application

Purpose:

The purpose of the 2012-2013 National Title I Distinguished Schools Recognition Program, a project of the National Association of State Title I Directors (NASTID), is to recognize qualifying Title I schools from each state for their outstanding achievements in education. Only two schools per state are selected each year as Distinguished Schools. Each state may select one qualifying school in each of the following categories:

- Category 1: A school that has exceeded AMOs for the current and previous years (accountability years 2011-2012 and 2012-2013); or
- Category 2: A school that has significantly closed the achievement gap for the student subgroups as evident by performance toward AMOs in the current and previous years (accountability years 2011-2012 and 2012-2013).

The application packet contains the school participation intent form and information about the selection criteria, review criteria, page requirements, and date the application is due to the Virginia Department of Education.

Selection Criteria:

Please use a 12-point font for all pages.

The following areas must be addressed in the application:

- One-page narrative description of the school with one-inch margins and 12-point font size (This narrative must include verification that the school has a 35 percent or higher poverty rate and that it has not been a previous recipient of this recognition.);
- Three-page description of the school's assessment results in reading (English/language arts) and mathematics (met or exceeded AMOs for two or more of the most current consecutive years) and how the school uses assessment data to improve student/school performance;
- One-page description of the reading (English/language arts) curriculum;
- One-page description of the mathematics curriculum;
- One-page description of how opportunities for all children to achieve are provided;
- One-page description of coordination with other programs;
- One-page description of professional development offerings;
- One-page description of partnerships with parents, families, and communities; and
- One-page description of the greatest contributing factor to the school's success.

Review Criteria:

The application will be evaluated on the following categories:

- Teaching and learning based on the approved state curriculum;
- Use of research-based instructional strategies;
- Opportunities provided for each student to achieve;
- Coordination of Title I program with other programs;
- Implementation of sustained research-based professional development;
- Established partnership with parents, families, and communities; and
- Quantitative data supporting either Category 1 or Category 2.
