Teacher Direct

A New Web Page Just for Virginia Teachers

TeacherDirect is a new addition to the Virginia Department of Education's Web site that includes links to resources for all SOL subject areas.

SOL News contains weekly updated items of interest to teachers, such as new instructional resources, upcoming professional development activities, grant and scholarship opportunities, and student contests.

SOL Events contains a searchable professional development calendar of conferences, webinars, and institutes.

SOL Library contains catalogs of all DOE resources available to teachers of English, mathematics, science, and history and social science; and videos and narrated PowerPoint presentations on how the Standards of Learning are created and assessed, as well as DOE resources available to support them.
