

TEACHERS OF COLOR SUMMIT

February 16-18, 2017

Richmond, VA

This 3-day convocation includes, but is not limited to students, teacher educators, K-12 and postsecondary administrators, retired educators, human resources personnel, community organizations and policymakers. The summit is sponsored, in part, by the Virginia Department of Education and is a part of a yearlong commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the merger of the Virginia Teachers Association and the Virginia Education Association. There will be a gala reception at the newly renovated Black History Museum and Cultural Center of Virginia.

Participants will engage in a variety of discussions on topics related to mentoring, licensure, recruitment and retention of a diverse teacher workforce, and much more.

Summit activities will include:

- Panel Discussions
- Keynote Speaker
- Workshop Breakout Sessions
- "History and Heritage" Luncheon
- Historical and Educational Exhibits
- Vendors

Invited guests include:

Ms. Jahana Hayes
2016 National Teacher of the Year

Dr. Toney L. McNair, Jr.
2017 Virginia Teacher of the Year
