Identification of Schools Eligible for Federal Fiscal Year 2010 School Improvement Grants (SIG)

The Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2010 School Improvement Grant (SIG) provisions require states to identify “persistently lowest-achieving schools” using criteria approved by the United States Department of Education. Virginia used the criteria below to identify “persistently lowest-achieving schools” (Tier I and Tier II) eligible for FFY 2010 SIG funds. Separate criteria were used to identify Tier III schools. The chart below displays the specific criteria used to identify schools in each tier. A list of schools identified as Tier I, Tier II, and Tier III is included below the criteria chart. These schools are eligible to apply for SIG funds for the 2011-2012 school year.

Criteria for Identifying Schools Eligible for FFY 2010 SIG Funds

Tier I	A Title I school in improvement, corrective action, or restructuring that is among the lowest-achieving five percent of Title I schools in improvement, corrective action, or restructuring based on the academic achievement of the “all students” group in reading/language arts and mathematics combined and the school has not reduced its failure rate in reading/language arts and/or mathematics by 10 to 15 percent each year for the past two years
Tier II	A secondary school that is eligible for, but does not receive, Title I funds that is among the lowest-achieving five percent of schools based on the academic achievement of the “all students” group in reading/language arts and mathematics combined and the school has not reduced its failure rate in reading/language arts and/or mathematics by 10 to 15 percent each year for the past two years; or a high school that has had a graduation rate as defined in 34 CFR 200.19(b) that is less than 60 percent for two years
Tier III	Title I schools in school improvement, corrective action, or restructuring that do not meet the criteria to be identified as Tier I schools
