Executive Summary

The Virginia Board of Education (Board) has made a commitment to maintain rigorous and relevant expectations for students that meet or exceed national and international benchmarks for college and career readiness. New academic content Standards of Learning for history and social science were first developed in 1995. They were revised in 2001, 2008, and 2015. Section 22.1-253.13:1.B of the Code of Virginia requires the Board to review the Standards of Learning on a regular schedule. On January 28, 2021, the Board accepted a written report of the Timeline for the Review and Revision Process of the 2015 History and Social Science Standards of Learning. In accordance with the timeline, the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) took steps to begin the review process. As shared in Attachment A, stakeholder groups have been engaged in the process and will continue to be involved as staff prepare documents for First Review anticipated in July 2022.

Action Requested:

No action requested.
Previous Review or Action:
Date: January 28, 2021
Action: The Board received a written report outlining the Standards of Learning review and revision timeline and process for history and social science.

Background Information and Statutory Authority:
Section 22.1-253.13:1-B of the Code of Virginia requires the Board to establish a regular schedule to review and revise the Standards of Learning. This Code section states: "The Board of Education shall establish a regular schedule, in a manner it deems appropriate, for the review, and revision as may be necessary of the Standards of Learning in all subject areas. Such review of each subject shall occur at least once every seven years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Board from conducting such review and revision on a more frequent basis..."

On March 26, 2015, the Board approved the Standards of Learning for history and social science. The VDOE proceeded with the review and revision of the Curriculum Frameworks to align with the newly adopted Standards of Learning. Final approval of the Curriculum Frameworks were fully implemented during the 2018 - 2019 school year.

On September 17, 2020, the Board received the report and recommendations from the Virginia African American History Education Commission (the Commission) established through Executive Order Thirty Nine. Executive Order Thirty Nine tasked the Commission with issuing a report with recommendations. Taking into account the Commission’s recommendations to broaden participation and outreach, the VDOE presented to the Board an expanded Timeline for the Review and Revision Process of the 2015 History and Social Science Standards of Learning to include the recommendations of the Commission’s Process Revision Workgroup:

- Expand the number of educators and external content experts so that a wide range of experiences, cultural perspectives, and pedagogical preferences are represented from across the Commonwealth to contribute to development of the standards
- Convene a steering committee composed of external content experts and the practitioners to review and revise the content recommended in the standards process.
- Provide outreach to encourage parents, students, educators, and administrators across the Commonwealth to provide feedback on the proposed standards as part of the public comment process.
- Ensure that all comments, perspectives, events are thoroughly vetted and determine next steps on how to revise inaccurate content in the standards of learning and curriculum frameworks.
- Secure funds for expanding the educator and external committees
The expanded process established the following:

- convening Steering committees representative of Students, Practitioners and Historians to ensure that various perspectives have a voice;
- increasing the number of Educators on the Review Committee to ensure diversity and regional representation; and
- dividing the External Committee into two separate committees: Museums/Organisations and Historian

On January 28, 2021, the Board received a written report from the VDOE outlining the Standards of Learning review and revision timeline and process. Following the notification to the Board, the VDOE posted Superintendent’s Memo 025-21: Review of the History and Social Science Standards of Learning: Seeking Input from the School Community. Adhering to the anticipated timeline for the Review and Revision of the 2015 History and Social Science Standards of Learning, Attachment A provides background information, data, and explanation of the review and revision process thus far.

Timetable for Further Review/Action:
It is anticipated that the VDOE will present the Board with a proposed standards document at its July 2021 meeting for first review. Following the first review of the Proposed 2022 Standards of Learning for History and Social Science, the VDOE will communicate to local school divisions and the public a schedule for public hearings to take place August - September 2022.

Impact on Fiscal and Human Resources:
The VDOE administers the state standards review process. The agency’s existing resources can absorb this responsibility at this time.
UPDATE: HISTORY AND SOCIAL SCIENCE STANDARDS OF LEARNING
REVIEW AND REVISION

OVERVIEW
On January 28, 2021, the Board received a written report from the VDOE outlining the Standards of Learning review and revision timeline and process. Following the notification to the Board, the VDOE posted Superintendent’s Memo #025-21: Review of the History and Social Science Standards of Learning: Seeking Input from the School Community.

Vision of the History and Social Science Review Process
Change history and social science instruction in the Commonwealth of Virginia
The Standards are NOT a means to an end: passing a test; but they are a base of knowledge, understanding, and confidence to:
- make informed decisions;
- take informed action;
- honor our collective history; and
- respond and engage in ways that benefit our communities, state, nation, and the world.

Goals of the History and Social Science Review Process
- Develop standards that focus on multiple perspectives instead of a singular narrative.
- Continue the emphasis on the social science skills to indicate what students should know, understand, and be able to do.
- Establish a structure that promotes inquiry and coaches teachers to shift their practice to focus on compelling questions, the use of valid information sources, and opportunities to link instruction and assessment.
- Frame the Standards Document with the incorporation of themes or concepts which can thread both horizontally and vertically throughout the grade levels/courses.

Research and Current Practices
Several national pieces of research were reviewed throughout the process. Listed below are a few highlights:
- Inquiry-based learning is an approach to learning that emphasizes the student’s role in the learning process. Rather than the teacher telling students what they need to know, students are encouraged to explore the material, ask questions, and share ideas. Inquiry-based learning uses different approaches to learning, including small-group discussion and guided learning. Instead of memorizing facts and material, students learn by doing. This allows them to build knowledge through exploration, experience, and discussion.
- Educating for an American Democracy (EAD) shifts from breadth to depth by offering an inquiry framework that weaves history and civics together and inspires students to learn by asking difficult questions, then seeking answers in the classroom through facts and discussion. The EAD Roadmap recommends approaches to learning that:
- inspire students to want to become involved in their constitutional democracy;
- tell a full and complete narrative of America’s plural, yet shared story;
- celebrate the compromises needed to make our constitutional democracy work;
- cultivate civic honesty and patriotism that leaves space to both love and critique this country; and
- teach both history and civics through a timeline of events and themes that run through those events.

- C3 Framework
  - The C3 Framework emphasizes the acquisition and application of knowledge to prepare students for college, career, and civic life.
  - It intentionally envisions social studies instruction as an inquiry framework of interlocking and mutually reinforcing elements that speak to the intersection of ideas and learners.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Public Comment Collection Process
The Public Comment period was open from January 29, - March 1, 2021. Public Comments were collected via a Google Form to give feedback on the 2015 HSS Standards of Learning and Curriculum Framework.

History and Social Science Standards of Learning and Curriculum Framework

New academic content Standards of Learning for history and social science were first developed in 1995 and revised in 2001, 2008, and again in 2015. The Standards of Quality require the Board of Education to review the Standards of Learning on a regular seven year schedule. §22.1-253.13:1 and §22.1-17.5. On January 28, 2021, The Virginia Board of Education accepted the projected timeline for the Review and Revision of the History and Social Science Standards of Learning and Curriculum Framework.

Virginia Code states that the Department of Education shall make available and maintain a website, either separately or through an existing website utilized by the Department of Education, enabling public elementary, middle, and high school educators to submit recommendations for improvements relating to the Standards of Learning, when under review by the Board according to its established schedule, and related assessments required by the Standards of Quality pursuant to this chapter. Such website shall facilitate the submission of recommendations by educators.

The public comment period will be open January 29, 2021-March 1, 2021. All comments received by March 1, 2021 will be considered for the Review and Revision of the History and Social Science Standards of Learning. Please use the form below to provide comment on the Kindergarten History 2015 History and Social Science Standards of Learning and Curriculum Framework.

COMMITTEES

Practitioner’s Steering Committee
- Comprised of 30 Specialists and Coordinators representing the 8 Superintendent’s Regions participated in sessions to review public comments and develop a proposed Standards document
- Worked in small teams to lead the Educator’s Committees
- Provided a K - 12 view of the history and social science instructional program
- Meetings began November 2020 and continue to the present

Historian Steering Committee
- Convened in February 2021
- Proposed edits to the Standards and Curriculum Frameworks based upon their expertise
- Committee members included:
  - Three Historians (University of Richmond, Norfolk State University, and Randolph-Macon University)
  - Economist (Old Dominion University)
  - Political Scientist (Christopher Newport University)
  - Geographer (Longwood University)

Student Advisory Committee
- Convened a Student Advisory Committee (SAC) in May 13 and 27, 2021
- Consisted of juniors and seniors selected by Regional Superintendents.
- 16 students representing the 8 Superintendent’s Regions were invited to participate in sessions to discuss and provide feedback on the 2015 History and Social Science Standards of Learning
- Students developed an informal survey to reach out to other students to gain their diverse perspectives
- SAC developed a questionnaire:
  - Demographics: School level and region
  - Questions were developed by the students
  - 25 questions asking about their opinions about the coverage of content, the skills they may have gained, and the instruction they felt they have received.

Let's Make a Change!

The Virginia Department of Education's Student Advisory Council for the Review and Revision of the History and Social Science (HSS) SOL invite you to take part in making your voices heard. Below you will find a survey that ask questions about your experience in your social studies classrooms. You do not have to answer all of the questions, but the more information you provide, the better opportunity we have of making a change and difference in what students across the Commonwealth are learning in social studies classrooms. The survey will capture your email address and all other identification is optional. Thank you for taking the time to help us make a difference!

Sincerely,
VDOE HSS SOL Student Advisory Council

CHALLENGES AND REFLECTIONS

Challenges

- Breadth vs. depth
- Increase in content to expand the narrative
- Consideration of all the public comments
- Competing instructional and assessment priorities in other content areas results in the marginalization of Social Studies instructional time at the elementary level

Reflections

In order to reconcile the Input from Review Committees, the VDOE needs to:

1. Ensure that content introduced in early grades is not be repeated, but expanded upon in subsequent courses
2. Ensure there is language consistency throughout the courses
3. Revise the Standards document to reflect Inquiry-based learning rather than providing a textbook narrative by introducing
   a. Supporting Questions
   b. Knowledge and Disciplinary Skills
   c. Content, Sources, and Resources for Consideration

NEXT STEPS

Winter 2021 - Spring 2022

Moving towards First Review and beyond:

- Continue to work with the Practitioner and Historian Steering Committees to compile the proposed standards document based upon the work of all previous committees
- Continue to expand outreach especially to specific regions
- Work with internal agency staff on the review
- Continue to work with a Transition Steering Committee to:
  - establish a professional development needs assessment for divisions based on the 2022 History and Social Science Standards of Learning revision.
  - develop instructional materials and professional development to assist in the transition from the 2015 to the 2022 History and Social Science Standards of Learning

Summer and Fall 2022

- First Review - Anticipated for July 2022
- Public Hearings - Anticipated for August - September 2022
- Final Review - Anticipated for November 2022
