

Museum Exhibit Rubric

Artifact Categories	Artifact Categorization	Artifact Justification				Mechanics
		Does Not Explain Artifact (0)	Barely Explains Artifact (12)	Adequately Explains Artifact (24)	Fully Explains Artifact (36)
Culture/Religious Artifact	The artifact is correctly identified as one that represents culture/religion and is chosen for the correct region.	The explanatory card does not explain how the culture/religious artifact was used and does not relate its use to the region. There are no historically accurate justifications for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	The explanatory card does not adequately explain how the culture/religious artifact was used and relates its use to the region. There is one historically accurate justification for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	The explanatory card adequately explains how the culture/religious artifact was used and relates its use to the region. There are at least two historically accurate justifications for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	The explanatory card fully explains how the culture/religious artifact was used and relates its use to the region. There are at least three historically accurate justifications for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	Clearly written and easy to read; few if any errors 4
						Some grammatical errors that slow down reading at times 2
						Grammatical errors significantly inhibit reading 0
Specializations Artifact	The artifact is correctly identified as one that represents and is chosen for the correct region.	The explanatory card does not explain how the specialization artifact was used and does not relate its use to the region. There are no historically accurate justifications for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	The explanatory card does not adequately explain how the specialization artifact was used and relates its use to the region. There is one historically accurate justification for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	The explanatory card adequately explains how the specialization artifact was used and relates its use to the region. There are at least two historically accurate justifications for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	The explanatory card fully explains how the specialization artifact was used and relates its use to the region. There are at least three historically accurate justifications for this artifact being included in the exhibit.	Clearly written and easy to read; few if any errors 4
						Some grammatical errors that slow down reading at times 2
						Grammatical errors significantly inhibit reading 0